

XM provides a service that people PAY for which is more than I can say about regular radio. Do we limit the information that we can get on satellite TV. No! What is the difference. In America we should continue to embrace innovation and change, it's what has made this country great. Leave XM alone.